Delhi Badly Beaten in Same Event-Woodford Clay Takes Two Races-Roseben Triumphs With a Heavy Burden-Big

Crowd on Opening Day at the Beach. The annual summer meeting of the Brighton Beach Racing Association opened under the most favorable conditions yesterday. The reather was all that could be desired, the card bristled with attractive features and the rowd, which was close to 20,000 persons, waxed enthusiastic all the afternoon. The Brighton Mile, weight-for-age, was the star feature, which was productive of a sensa-tional race and a sterling victory by John Drake's Ort Wells over August Belmont's sidame and James R. Keene's Delhi. Ort Wells had taken part in only one race pre-vious to yesterday's affair, and in that event he was third to Broomstick and Proper in a fast mile. He has been late in coming to hand, but when Enoch Wishard sent him t the post yesterday the smart men, or rathe some of them, knew enough to bet, with the result that the King Eric colt was backed down to 8 to 1. Beldame, meanwhile, was always an odds-on favorite, while Delhi re-ceded from 6 to 5 to 3 to 2, with Oxford, the only other starter, at long odds.

Starter Cassidy caught the small field a the post directly in front of the grand stand to a splendid send-off, although in the quick rush for an advantage Delhi was pinched off and Nicolwas compelled to go to the outside with the Keene colt, who curled up in the middle of the backstretch completely done to a turn by the fast pace. Beldame, in the meantime, was taken to the front by O'Neill, but she never got away from Ort Wells, in spite of the fast gait at which she traveled. It was on the far turn that Sperling made his run with the Drake colt and he collared the Belmont mare so quickly that the crowd cried out in surprise. As they turned into the stretch Ort Wells assumed command in a lordly way and O'Neill put Beldame under the whip, but the Drake colt came on under a hard drive and won in royal style by a length in 1:38 1-5, one-fifth of a second slower than the best record for the track hung up by Hermis last year, when he defeated Beldame at the Beach in the Test Handicap. Delhi was six lengths behind Beldame, struggling home a length before Oxford. The fractional time for the race Was as follows: 0:13, 0:24 4-5, 0:36 3-5, 0:48 3-5 1:00 4-5, 1:13 3-5, 1:26 2-5, 1:38 1-5.

Woodford Clay won two races during the afternoon. In the Distaff Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, he ran first and second respectively with Running Water and Single Shot, both Lyne and O'Neill going to a heavy drive in the stretch and the former taking the race by half a length in 1:01. The entry was the hottest kind of a choice at even money. James R. Keene's Voter filly Ballotta, 12 to 5, after poor handling by Nicol, finished third, six lengths away.

Clay also scored with Angler, a 9 to 10 favorite, who graduated from the maiden class in the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth. Lyne waited with Angler for three-quarters of a mile and then ran over Peter Wimmer's Chrysolite, 10 to 1, and beat him easily by two lengths in 1:48, with Ismailian, a good thing, a head out of the place.

Dave Johnson's Roseben, a public idol nowadays, and a better weight carrier than Reliable, won the first race, at six furlongs, in remarkable fashion. Picking up 135 pounds and backed off the boards, the big horse trailed Lady Amelia, 3 to 1, the pacemaker, to the head of the stretch, and then, passing her quickly, he won in a gallop in 1:12 2-5, two-fifths of a second behind Lux Casta's track record. Lady Amelia lasted long enough to beat Bad News.

After a chapter of accidents in which five horses fell, Mr. Cotton's Alamanzor, 4 to 1, won the steeplechase without trouble, Callorahatchee, 15 to 1, finished second, though at one time his rider was unseated and only escaped a fall-by hanging on to the horse's peck. Bacchanal, 50 to 1, was third. Jim Newman, Nitrate and Pagan Bey, all heavily packed, sprawled over the obstacles and burned the money.

Horay Amelia lasted. First pace, in fifth race, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, and won in a drive by half a length in 1:44. P. H. McCarren's St. Estephe, 10 to 1, was second, with R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Lord of the Forest, 10 to 1, third. Four favorites were victorious. The summaries:

AUTO SPECIAL ON TIME. Major Miller's Three Cars Will Compete in St. Paul Racing Meet.

CHICAGO, July 5 .- The Erie Railroad automobile train carrying three racing machines belonging to Major C. J. S. Miller of Franklin, Pa., arrived here at 5:55 o'clock this afternoon and the cars left at 6 o'clock over the Chicago Great Western road for St. Paul. Major Miller's cars were raced at Morris Park, in New York city, yesterday and Mon-day, and he was anxious to have them compete at St. Paul in the meet to-morrow. He hired a special train and had the racing machines placed in a prepared baggage car. Among them is the Fiat which after breaking down at Moris Park was hauled to Hollander & Tangeman's and had a new engine put in.

in Major Miller's party are E. R. Hollander, Louis Chevrolet, his professional driver, and E. Parker, the chauffeur of the Fiat Junior. The party is due to arrive in St. Paul before 10 o'clock in the morning, which will be in plenty of time to have the cars take part in the races there.

JOHN A. DRAKE WINS $16,000.

DOES NOT BACK ORT WELLS WITH USUAL CONFIDENCE.

Other Sharp Operators Clean Up Handsomely at Brighton—Roseben's Success a Killer for the Books—Stewards Ask Nicol and Watkins Questions.

When Ort Wells came home in triumph vesterday there was a rumor that John A. Drake and his friends had skinned the betting ring. Drake, according to his own statement, won only $16,000 on the success of his colt, while one of his turf associates, A. B. Hudson, bet $100 on the son of King Eric, after placing $2,500 on Delhi. Joe Ullman made the rounds of the books twice, betting on Ort Wells, while Jack McDonald wagered $2,000, Max Blumenthal $1,000 and Eddie McDonald $500 on the colt, these combined wagers, coupled with others of smaller unts, making some of the bookmakers feel decidedly weary. Sim Deimel was one of the heaviest supporters of Delhi, who was backed by W. J. Hayes, Bob Rose, Jesse Lewisohn and Charley Cash, the last named also having a good b on Ort Wells. The Lichtensteins, Joe Hay-man, Charley Fox, Newton Bennington, Joe Murphy, Chicago O'Brien and several club-house commissioners put their money down in chunks on Beldame.

Few races have resulted so disastrously for the ring as the first event, in which Roseben, Lady Amelia and Bad News finished one, two, three. Thousands were placed on Roseben to win, the price being hammered down to even money, while Lady Amelia was tremendously played for the place and Bad News carried a mint of show money. Dave Johnson headed the plunge on Roseben with a $10,000 wager, George Wheelock betting $5,000, Joe Ullman $3,000, and smaller wagers being placed by Joe Rose, Ike Thompson, M. Manheimer, William Beverly, F. Moore, Alex Shields, Frank McKee, Jos Guthorn, Sol Lichten-stein, Henry Harris, Eddie McDonald and Lady Amelia was played by John Coleman, Charley Cash, Frank Tyler, George Boles, E. R. Thomas and a clubhouse commissioner, who bet $5,000 alone. Bad News was taken by Dave O'Connor, Eddie Burke, Bill Porter, J. Ray and Smith Keime. Big Ben got the support of Leo Mayer, Jim Davey and Charley Heney. Joe Yeager and Tom Costigan bet on Pioneer to show.

Jack McGinnis had a big bet on Alamanzor.

Jack McGinnis had a big bet on Alamanzor, the winner of the steeplechase. Joe Rose and Tim Payne bet on Pagan Bey, and the Lichtensteins showed a marked preference for Jim Newman, while Louis Snell and Jim Bissert went to Nitrate.

Running Water and Single Shot, who ran first and second, coupled favorites, in the Distan Stakes, were heavily played, the biggest waters on them being made by Jack McGinnis, Alex Shields, Charley Fox and Counselor Lichtenstein, Joe Ullman bet $500 on Ballotta with Bill Cowen, but, afterward receiving a tip on Cousin Eva, he asked Cowen to take the bet off the Keene filly and put it on Lakeland's, Cowen readily assenting. Joe Yeaker played Hekate to show, with Charley Gash, Henry Harris and Bill Porter backing Ballotta. Orlando Jones bet on Cousin Eva.

There was another successful plunge on Hooray, in the fifth race. The bookmakers' stools and foot boxes, by the way, were not taken to the track rail to be used as vantage points during the running of the races because the Pinkertons issued orders that they could not be taken from the ring. As a result the layers and their clerks had to stand on tiptoe like everybody else on the lawn and see what they could.

The steeplechase was about the worst thing in its line that has been seen on a local track for a long time. Last year two steeplechase jockeys were killed at the Beach in just such rough and tumble events as disgusted a majority of the crowd yesterday. When Nitrate fell on the backstretch. G. Brooks was knocked senseless. He was carried to the hospital, where it was found that his collarbone was broken. Four other horses fell, two of them, Jim Newman, the favorite, and Red, White and Blue, at the water jump, the riders being severely shaken up.

favorite, and Red, White and Blue, at the water jump, the riders being severely shaken up.

In the fifth race, during a jam on the backstretch, Tambeau was crowded to the rail, and his jockey, an inexperienced boy named Anderson, was thrown under the feet of the racers. He was apparently killed outright from a spectators standpoint, but though he was still unconscious when the program was at an end the physician in charge said that he would come around all right. Later there was a report that the boy was suffering from concussion of the brain and was not likely to recover. But this could not be verified, as the boy was not an inmate of any of the hospitals.

The stewards, C. J. Fitzgerald, P. J. Dwyer and W. S. Vosburgh, did not like Nicol's ride on St. Estephe in the fifth race. The boy pulled St. Estephe up and laid in behind Hooray to the head of the stretch, when he made a vain effort to go to the front, although he could have assumed the leadership at the outset.

Nicol explained to the stewards that he had ridden strictly in accordance with the orders received from the trainer of the Octagon gelding. R. E. Watkins. The stewards then sent for Watkins, who confirmed the boy's statement, at the same time explaining that he thought Hooray was a "dog" and that St. Estephe could run over him in the stretch. Watkins got off with a criticism of his judgment. Hooray, by the way, was bid up to $1,800 by W. H. Jenks, Fred Burlew protecting the colt with the usual advance. Jenks is said to be associated in turf matters with W. H. Snyder.

Jockey Eddie Dominick, who came East recently to ride for E. E. Smathers and S. C. Hildreth, has mysteriously disappeared, after making several important engagements. Tommy Burns has, therefore, been engaged to ride the Smathers horses for the rest of the season at a salary of $4.500, it is said.

A number of Japs are here, buying horses to be used for military purposes in the Far East. They are under the advice of John Mackay, the manager of the Haggin establishment, and have made many purchases.

A Boer war veteran took up a position near the timers' stand all the afternoon and wigwagged messages to the inclosure next door whenever a race was about to be run, causing a sudden cessation of hostilities. Just before the Brighton Mile was run there was a terrific cannonading, and the crowd in the paddock hurried to the shed to see how the noise affected the horses. Beldame was not disturbed at all, but the pony who accompanies her everywhere was as nervous as a cat. Ort Wells did a high kicking act which made the crowd skip out of the way, while Delhi trembled all over.

The track at the Beach has been greatly improved, with a top dressing of soft loam, which has made it one of the best on the circuit. Last year the hardness of the track was said to have been the cause of numerous breakdowns.

Turf sharps could not recall a performance that equaled the feat of Roseben when he ran six furlongs in 1:12 2-5, with 135 pounds on his back. Had the big Ben Strome gelding, who has been applendidly trained by Frank Weir, been extended, he would have hung up a new record for the track. Weir has done so well with Roseben, Jacquin, Keator and other horses in his care that whenever he sends anything to the post it is worth looking over.

HYANNIS, July 5.—Thirty-two golfers qualified for match play in the Great Island Club tournament to-day. The contestants played thirty-six holes, one round this morning and the other this afternoon. Walter J. Travis of Garden City led the field, making a 74 for each round. His game was consistently brilliant in both rounds. A. Hamilton of Englewood made the second lowest acore, 74 for the morning and 77 this afternoon. A. G. Lockwood of Allston was third, with a 73 this morning and 80 this afternoon. A. L. White, the intercollegiate champlon, turned in the fourth best score, getting an 80 for the first round and 76 for his second round. The drawing for match play indicates that Travis will meet T. G. Stevenson of Myopia or White in the first half of the tournament, and some excellent golf is promised. Lockwood will probably meet Hamilton in the second half, and the pair should make an interesting match. The men defeated in the first round of match play to-morrow morning will compete for the Governors' cup. A consolation cup will be played for by the men who failed to qualify for the Great Island cup.

ONE-SIDED GAME AND THE WASH-INGTONS EASY WINNERS.

They Get a Big Lead Early and Hold On to It-Clevelands Defeat and Break Tie With the Chicagos-Detroits Best St. Louis-Bostons Beat Philadelphias.

The Clevelands defeated the Chicagos sterday and broke the tie with them for first place in the American League. Reaction tons trounced them. The latter left last place behind, the Browns again occupying that position, being worsted by the Detroits. The Bostons won a ten inning game from the Philadelphias. The results:

Washington, S; New York, L. Boston, 4: Philadelphia, 8. Cleveland, 6; Chicago, 1.

WASHINGTON, 8; NEW YORK (A. L.), 1.

After the life and dash of the Fourth of July games, yesterday's combat at American League Park was slow and uninteresting. The Washingtons had a pitcher in the box that the New Yorks could not hit, and the game was a one-sided victory for the visitor. Patten kept the home team's hits far apart until the ninth inning, when the New Yorks managed to inject two hits into the round and make their one isolated run. Williams hit to right, moved up a section on Yeager's out at first and rustled to the rubber when Chase jammed a safe one to lert. Fultz tripled in the fifth inning with nobody out, but Patten held him in bondage there by his summary disposal of the succeeding bat-ters.

out, but Patten held him in bondage there by his summary disposal of the succeeding batters.

Hogg, who was hurt on Tuesday, was sent into the box and plainly was not himself. His speed was elsewhere and his control conspicuous by its absence. He got the ball over in the first inning, and Jones's double and Knoll's single so dovetailed as to produce a run; but in the second inning his control vanished.

The second inning was New York's undoing. A base on balls, a single and a hit batsman filled the nooks. Then a base on balls showed a run over. Hill followed with a piquant poke that promulgated two more runs. Big Puttmann came in at this unpropitious juncture, and an outfield fly brought in a fourth tally. The run malée flourished a while longer. Anderson stumbled across a lucky single that framed up the fifth round trip of the inning.

Puttmann pitched a good game once he got into the swing of it. The Washingtons scored twice in the seventh and made two two-baggers, but only one run would have resulted had there not been a couple of errors. One of the misplays was made by Jim my Williams, his first offense in a stretch of twenty-five games, and it was excusable. Williams dropped a fly which he had to turn and run out for, and then make a quick stop.

When Puttmann came in the stable had been burglarized and the horse stolen, so his work was nothing like as influential as that of his rival left-hander. But had Putt been in all the time it would have been a pretty southpaw duel. Elberfeld's one-handed catch of a liner, right hand supplementing left, was the game's stellar stunt. The score:

New Yorks Win Again in Philadelphia, Taking Three Out of Four.

Another game was won by the New York Nationals in Philadelphia yesterday, making hree out of four in that habitation and demonstrating to the Quakers that the Champions are their masters. The Brooklyns were shut out by the Bostons, and last place theirs again. In the West Cincinnati won from St. Louis and Pittsburg from Chicago The results:

New York, 9; Philadelphia, 7. Boston, 7; Brooklyn, O. Cincinnati, 9; St. Louis, S. Pittsburg, S: Chicago, S.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK 'N. L.), 9; PHILADELPHIA 'N. L.), 7.
PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—New York defeated Philadelphia this afternoon in the sloppiest game of the season. In the first inning Duggleby was hit for three singles and a double, which, with a base on balls and a sacrifice, yielded tour runs. Then he was sent to the stable, Caldwell taking his place. On the basis of his performance the Philadelphians would have had a good show to win with him in the box from the start. Ames started in by giving the first four men bases on balls. A wild pitch and an out enabled three of the locals to score. Ames improved as the game progressed, and though he kept on giving bases on balls, they were rarely accompanied by the requisite hits. The score: NEW YORK .N. L.), 9; PHILADELPHIA .N. L.), 7.

BOSTON (N. L.), 7; BROOKLYN, 0.

Vic Willis put the Brooklyns back into last place again yesterday at Washington Park, He pitched the kind of ball that wins 99 games out of 100, and the Brooklynites got three hits in separate innings for a total of no runs. The Bostonians closed their engagement by chalking up seven runs, and did as much to get even for being beaten in a doubleheader on Tuesday as a clean shutout by a large margin will do. It was a sleepy, listless game, and uninteresting in the last degree. The score:
